

Carolyn Merrill

Carolyn Merrill has been a public educator for 22 years. She has been a high school mathematics teacher for 14 years and a high school administrator for 8 years. Her current assignment is now the principal of American Fork High School.

She earned a B.S. degree from the University of Utah and a Masters in Educational Leadership from Brigham Young University.

Carolyn is a Trustee at Utah Valley University and has been so for over three years.

Her hobbies include biking, skiing, and cheering for the Cavemen (and Cavewomen), the Wolverines, and the students attending MATC, not necessarily in that order.
